

The Elizabeth Quay Terminal is used by all car and passenger ferry operators on routes between Jersey, Guernsey, Poole, Portsmouth, Weymouth, St. Malo, Carteret and Granville. The terminals are located approximately half a mile to the south of St Helier which is only a 5 - 10 minute walk to both the Visitor Services Centre and the main shopping areas.

Why should you advertise at Jersey Harbour?

The advertising sites offer a huge opportunity to display to a captive audience as people wait to board the ferry by car or by foot. Each site offers excellent support of medium to large advertising campaigns on a local or national scale. Over 700,000 passengers travel onboard the ferries annually offering a large captive audience for your campaign message.
